Charm of Tochigi

Tochigi Prefecture is located 48 minutes from Tokyo (time to reach Utsunomiya), by Shinkansen(bullet train) . It includes Nikko and Nasu, two of Japan's leading tourist destinations, and a great variety of delicious food. You can spend quality time on your days off.

Strawberry Kingdom Tochigi

For more than half a century, Tochigi has been the number one producer of strawberries in Japan. In addition to existing varieties, such as "Tochiotome" and "Skyberry",Tochigi has recently developed the perfectly sweet "Tochiaika".

World-recognized historical heritage

There is valuable historical heritage, such as the world cultural heritage site "Shrines and Temples of Nikko" and the world's longest tree-lined avenue "Nikko Sugnamiki" recognized in the Guinness Book of Records.

Top quality Tochigi Wagyu beef

The number of beef cattle raised in Tochigi Prefecture ranks high in Japan. The high quality meat has been awarded by national competition.

Delicious water

Nikko, Shoujinzawa, Izuruhara, and other places have an abundance of water that is famous for its quality. It is also known as a Japanese sake production area using premium natural water.

International summer resort

On the shores of Lake Chuzenji in Nikko, from the mid-Meiji to the early Showa period, many foreigners, including the embassies of various countries, built villas. It's the perfect summer-resort.

Premium hot springs

About 630 independent sources. Hot springs in various parts of the prefecture, such as Nasu, Shiobara Itamuro, Nikko Yumoto, Kinugawa/Kawaji, and Yunishigawa, help to relieve your daily fatigue.
